Which they will explore in the next few hours Tbilisi historic places:

The bath district and Legvtakhevi are the very heart of the city. According to the legend Tbilisi history starts from the hot sulfur springs.

Meidan – the heart of old city. Central Square which used to be trade center of the city and now is surrounded by nice cafes.*

Synagogue – as Tbilisi used to be cultural and administrative center not only for Georgia, but for whole Transcaucasia region, it became very multi-national, multi-religious and multi-cultural city. Here in one district are located mosque, synagogue, Georgian churches, Armenian church, and Catholic church and historically till now people of different nationalities and religion live peacefully beside each other.*

Freedom square – now days is the city center, but centuries ago it was the edge of the city.*

Baratashvili Avenue – one of the nicest avenues of the city, in old times it also was city edge and now here are remains of the old city walls.*

Tower clock – modern bizarre tower built by head of puppet theater – Rezo Gabriadze became favorite attraction for local people and tourists.*

Bridge of Peace – modern walking bridge only for walking in the heart of the old city. Good place to make good photos. And of course the heart of modern city – Rustaveli avenue, with cozy cafes, different and colorful shops.*

At the evening we will take the Funicular for a scenic ride.
