Day 4: Baalbeck – Anjar & Ksara

The tour kicks off with Baalbek an ancient Phoenician city located in what is now modern day Lebanon, north of Beirut, in the Beqaa Valley.

After that a visit to the city of Anjar which was founded by Caliph Walid I at the beginning of the 8th century. The ruins reveal a very regular layout, reminiscent of the palace-cities of ancient times, and are a unique testimony to city planning under the Umayyad's.

Later during the day you will proceed to Ksara, the home of the country's' oldest winery founded in 1857 by Jesuit Fathers. The wines are made with the highest standards with state of the art equipment, they also reflect the terroir of the Lebanon's historic Bekaa Valley, an area that has been making wine for over 2,000 years

Day 5: Tyre, Sidon & Maghdouche

Our tour starts at Sidon where we visit the Sea Castle, Khan El Franj and Soap museum.

Then visit Tyre, second largest city in the south of Lebanon with its purest shores. Then continue to the old island of Tyre, to see the roman bathes theatres and the old port. From the Mamluke and Ottoman periods we have the Great Mosque, built on the foundations of a Crusader building and the Khan 'el - Franj" built by Fakheredine II. Today the town 41 Kilometers from Beirut, has grown into a thriving commercial and business center serving the entire region.

After that we continue to Maghdouche, its most famous landmark is the tower of Our Lady of Mantara, which is a Marian shrine built (May 16, 1963) [5], above the cave that is believed to have been the resting place of the Virgin Mary as she waited for Jesus while he preached in Sidon.
