Day 4: Baalbeck – Anjar & Ksara

Baalbeck, located in the Bekaa valley 85 kilometers away from Beirut. It makes up the largest and best preserved corpus of roman architecture left around. The acropolis occupies the top of an artificial hill built up of different layers of habitation.

Its temples, dedicated to Jupiter, Bacchus and Venus, were constructed between the first and the third centuries A.D.

in the “Jupiter temple” six of the 54 giant columns that originally surrounded the sanctuary survived till today. The temple has an impressive podium and a vast rectangular courtyard where sacrifices were carried out. The sanctuary is reached through a propylaea (monumental entrance) and hexagonal forecourt.

The town of Baalbeck has major remains from Islamic times including the grand Mosque, built by the Ommayyads with material borrowed from ancient monuments, and another mosque built in Mamluke times near the spring of Ras El-Ain.

After that a visit to the city of Anjar which was founded by Caliph Walid I at the beginning of the 8th century. The ruins reveal a very regular layout, reminiscent of the palace-cities of ancient times, and are a unique testimony to city planning under the Umayyad's.

Later during the day you will proceed to Ksara, the home of the country's' oldest winery founded in 1857 by Jesuit Fathers. The wines are made with the highest standards with state of the art equipment, they also reflect the terroir of the Lebanon's historic Bekaa Valley, an area that has been making wine for over 2,000 years

Day 5: Tyre, Sidon & Maghdouche

Our tour starts at Sidon where we visit the Sea Castle, Khan El Franj and Soap museum.

Then visit Tyre, second largest city in the south of Lebanon with its purest shores. Then continue to the old island of Tyre, to see the roman bathes theatres and the old port. From the Mamluke and Ottoman periods we have the Great Mosque, built on the foundations of a Crusader building and the Khan 'el – Franj" built by Fakheredine II. Today the town 41 Kilometers from Beirut, has grown into a thriving commercial and business center serving the entire region.

After that we continue to Maghdouche, its most famous landmark is the tower of Our Lady of Mantara, which is a Marian shrine built (May 16, 1963) [5], above the cave that is believed to have been the resting place of the Virgin Mary as she waited for Jesus while he preached in Sidon.
